

Figure 1- The light always arrives to an observer with the velocity of light c

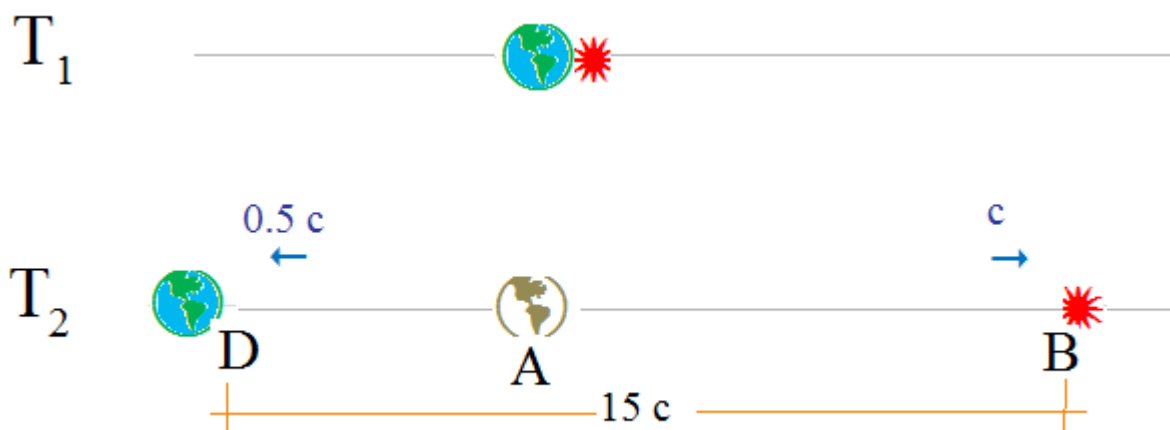

Figure 2- The velocity of light is always measured as the value c $T = 10$ inert second